

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and spans most of the page. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to land or property, given the use of terms like "finanzas" and "rentas". The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. There are several lines that are crossed out or heavily scribbled over, suggesting corrections or deletions. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-used document.
