

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of approximately seven lines. The script is dense and fluid.

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of approximately five lines. This section includes some faint markings or numbers on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of approximately five lines. The handwriting is consistent with the previous sections.

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of two lines. The first line is notably larger than the second.

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of approximately four lines. The word 'Talanoa' is written in a larger, bold script on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of approximately three lines. The word 'Pohai' is written in a larger, bold script on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in cursive script, consisting of approximately four lines. The word 'On' is written in a large, bold script on the left side of the page.

