

On the 1st of January 1780 I have received from you your letter of the 27th and am glad to hear that you are well
 and hope you will continue to be so
 for some time yet
 I have not time to write you more
 at present but will do so again soon
 I am your affectionate
 friend
 J. G.