

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are several lines of text that appear to be headings or sub-sections, such as "fesorero" and "aria". The text is written in a style characteristic of the 16th or 17th century. The handwriting is somewhat slanted and the letters are closely spaced. There are some corrections and additions throughout the text, indicated by small marks and overlapping lines. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical document.
