

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. The script appears to be a form of early modern Spanish or Italian cursive. There are several lines of text, some with decorative flourishes, and a large, stylized signature or seal at the bottom right. The paper shows signs of wear, including a small hole near the bottom right corner.
