

Handwritten text in a highly decorative script, likely a historical or legal document. The script is dense and covers most of the page, with some large initial letters. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed parchment. It appears to be a continuous block of text, possibly a contract or a formal record. Some words are clearly legible, such as 'año' and 'de', but the overall text is difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and some damage to the parchment.
