

Handwritten text in a dense, cursive script, likely a historical document or contract. The text is arranged in approximately 20 horizontal lines, with some lines starting with a large initial letter. The script is highly decorative and difficult to decipher. There are several large, irregular white patches or holes in the center of the page, obscuring the text underneath. The paper appears aged and slightly yellowed.

Handwritten signature or seal, possibly a circular emblem or a stylized name, located below the main body of text.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a date or a concluding statement. It includes the word "ano" at the end, suggesting a date in a specific year.
