

Handwritten text at the top of the page, partially obscured by a tear. It appears to be a continuation of text from the reverse side of the leaf.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. It contains several lines of text, some of which are partially obscured by a large tear on the left side of the page. The script is dense and characteristic of the late medieval or early modern period.
