

(The text in this block is extremely faded and largely illegible due to the age and condition of the manuscript. It appears to be a list or a set of entries, possibly related to a legal or administrative document.)

(This block contains a second paragraph of text, also largely illegible due to fading. It appears to be a continuation of the document's content, possibly providing further details or a conclusion to the previous section.)

