

Contra de p... [The main body of the document contains dense, handwritten Latin text in a Gothic script, likely a legal or ecclesiastical record. The text is written in dark ink on aged parchment and is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and fading. It appears to be a formal document, possibly a charter or a decree, given the context of the date and the nature of the script.]
