

Comptables (mots) vint... (The text is a dense, handwritten manuscript in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. It contains numerous entries, some of which are circled in red ink. The text is difficult to decipher due to the cursive and some fading, but it appears to be organized into columns or sections. There are several large, decorative initials or flourishes interspersed throughout the text, particularly at the beginning and end of sections. The overall appearance is that of a historical document, possibly a financial record or a list of accounts.)

(A large, decorative flourish or signature at the bottom center of the page, featuring intricate penmanship with loops and flourishes.)
