

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a signature or a name, possibly reading "John Smith" or similar, with a date "1780" visible on the right.

This image shows a page from the Voynich manuscript, a collection of handwritten text in an unknown script. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish parchment. The script is highly stylized and cursive, with many loops and flourishes. The text is arranged in several horizontal lines across the page. The overall appearance is that of a historical document, possibly a book or a letter, written in a language that has never been deciphered.
