

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is densely packed and written in a cursive style. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to land or property, as suggested by the words 'francas' and 'fructus' on the left margin. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines, with some lines being longer than others. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript page.
