

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It begins with a large initial letter, possibly 'C' or 'D', and contains several lines of text with some red ink used for initials or headings. The script is a cursive Gothic hand.

Handwritten marginalia on the left side of the page, including the number '26' and some illegible characters.

Second block of handwritten text, continuing the document. It features a large initial 'D' and contains several lines of text. There are some red ink markings and a horizontal line drawn across the text.

Third block of handwritten text, the final section on the page. It contains several lines of text, including a large initial 'D' and some red ink. The text appears to be a continuation of the previous sections.
