

SEAL OF THE
OFFICE OF THE
SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or report, written in cursive. The text is oriented vertically on the page. It appears to be a formal document, possibly related to the seal above. The handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher in many places, but it seems to contain several lines of text.

Handwritten signatures and names at the bottom of the page. The most prominent signature is a large, stylized cursive signature that appears to be "L. B. ...". Above it, there are several other names and titles, including "Mr. ...", "Mr. ...", and "Mr. ...". The text is written in cursive and is somewhat difficult to read.
