

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or legal record. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. It consists of approximately 25 lines of text, with some lines starting with large, decorative initial letters. The script is dense and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text appears to be a formal record, possibly a contract or a set of regulations, given the use of terms like 'compr' (comprised) and 'vend' (sold).
