

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or a similar cursive. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It appears to be a letter or a short treatise, with several lines of text. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and slightly stained. The text is written in a cursive style with some decorative flourishes. The words are difficult to decipher due to the cursive and the age of the document. The text seems to be a formal communication or a record of a transaction.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date. It includes a large, stylized initial or monogram that is difficult to read. The text is written in the same cursive style as the rest of the page. It appears to be a concluding part of the document, possibly a signature or a date.
