This is a handwritten document in Spanish, likely a legal or administrative record. The text is written in a cursive script and is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The document appears to be a collection of entries or a list, possibly related to land ownership or municipal records, as suggested by the marginal notes on the left.

This section contains a few more lines of handwritten text, which are also largely illegible. It appears to be a continuation of the main body of text or a separate entry.
