

1. The first thing I did was to go to the bank to see what the interest was on my money and to see if I could get a better rate than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

and to see if I could get a better rate

than I was getting at the present time

