

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal document or contract. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines crossed out or heavily scribbled over. The script is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century.

Large, stylized signature or seal at the bottom of the page, featuring intricate flourishes and possibly a central emblem or coat of arms. The signature is written in the same cursive script as the main text.
