

Faint, illegible handwriting in a cursive script, likely from a 17th or 18th-century manuscript. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper and is mostly obscured by fading and bleed-through from the reverse side.

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "John Smith" or similar, written in a cursive hand. The ink is dark and the script is somewhat formal.

Extremely faint and illegible handwriting, possibly representing a list or a series of entries. The text is barely visible due to fading and bleed-through.
