John and the King

The first part of the work is a description of the life of the author. It is written in a simple and direct style. The author describes his early years and his education. He also describes his travels and his experiences in the world.
 The second part of the work is a collection of letters and other documents. These documents are written in a more formal style and are addressed to various people.
 The third part of the work is a collection of poems and other literary pieces. These pieces are written in a more poetic and imaginative style.
 The fourth part of the work is a collection of historical documents and other records.
 These documents are written in a more factual and objective style.
