

Handwritten text in Old English script, likely a list or index. The text is written in a cursive hand and includes several lines of text, some of which are crossed out or heavily scribbled over. The text appears to be a list of names or titles, possibly related to a manuscript or a collection of works. The lines are written in a cursive hand, and some words are difficult to decipher due to the script and the condition of the parchment. The text is arranged in a vertical column, with each line starting with a small mark, possibly a letter or a symbol, which might indicate the beginning of a new entry. The overall appearance is that of a medieval manuscript page, possibly a table of contents or a list of references.
