

Fragment of a medieval manuscript page with Gothic script and musical notation. The page is heavily damaged, with a large central hole and significant staining. The text is written in a dense, dark ink on aged, yellowish-brown parchment. The script is a formal Gothic bookhand, and the musical notation consists of square neumes on a four-line red staff. The text is arranged in several columns, with some lines starting with large decorated initials. The right edge of the page shows the binding of the book, with some text from the adjacent page visible. The overall appearance is that of an ancient, well-used, and unfortunately damaged historical document.
