

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines starting with large, decorative initial letters. The text is oriented vertically on the page, reading from top to bottom. The handwriting is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. There are some faint markings and a small red stamp or mark in the bottom right corner.
