

Handwritten text at the top of the page, starting with a large initial 'S'. The script is dense and characteristic of the early modern period.

Main body of handwritten text, beginning with a large initial 'P'. The text is written in a highly decorative cursive script. There is a small word 'petit' written in the middle of the first line of this section. At the bottom of the page, there is a small red stamp with a crown above it.

