Vertical text on the left edge, possibly a marginal note or a list of names. The text is written in a smaller hand and is difficult to decipher due to its orientation and fading.

Handwritten text in the middle-left section, appearing to be a separate entry or a specific reference within the document.

Don Alfonso de Cardona
maestre de artilleria
y era antonandrea
de la orden de...

Main body of handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin. The text is dense and covers most of the lower half of the page. It appears to be a formal document, possibly a charter or a legal record, given the use of terms like "comendador" and "orden". The text is written in a cursive hand and is somewhat faded in places.
