

no sepa... (The text is a dense, handwritten manuscript in a cursive script, likely from the 16th or 17th century. It appears to be a treatise or a collection of notes, possibly related to law, medicine, or natural philosophy. The handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher in many places, but the structure is that of a continuous text with some paragraph breaks. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. There are some marginalia and corrections visible throughout the page.)
