

Concordia

24

John de Grey Archbishop

moy e bleton de Gremare fer

John Chrysostomus

Winnipeg, April 29th 1912 Wm. H. P.

den Präsidenten wie auch den anderen Vizepräsidenten und den anderen Mitgliedern des Kongresses und dem

Imperial regalities added to those of the Venerable but French g. DE MONTAIGNE has succeeded to the Venerable Monasteries of St. Sulpice, St. Germain des Prés and St. Germain l'Auxerrois of which he has been the Abbot since his election in 1770 and he is now the most illustrious member of the Order.
He is a man of great worth, very learned and ingenious, and a good example of the clerical character.