but the people would be more inclined to do so if we could get them to believe that they were not being taxed for the benefit of other countries. We must have a good deal of time to work out this plan, and I hope you will give us full details of your plan. I am sending a copy of our present draft for your information, but I think it will be better to have you send me your plan and I will work out the details.
