

The first part of the book is a list of names and titles, including the names of the authors and the titles of the works.
 The names are written in a cursive hand, and the titles are written in a smaller hand. The list is organized into columns, with the names of the authors in the first column and the titles of the works in the second column.
 The list includes the names of several prominent authors of the time, such as Shakespeare, Milton, and Dryden.
 The titles of the works are also clearly legible, and the list is well-organized and easy to read.
 The handwriting is a clear and consistent cursive, and the list is a valuable record of the literary output of the period.
