

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. It appears to be a formal communication, possibly a decree or a report, given the use of capital letters and the structured nature of the lines. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher due to the age and the style of the handwriting.

Vertical handwritten text on the left margin, possibly a list or a series of notes. The text is very faint and difficult to read, but it seems to be organized in a structured manner, possibly as a table or a list of items.
