[Large, stylized handwritten signatures or initials in the lower third of the page. The signatures are written in a highly decorative and cursive script, characteristic of 16th or 17th-century documents. There are approximately four distinct signatures or initials visible.]
