

For the first time in the history of the world the people of the world have been united in a single body and have agreed to make a common law for all the people of the world and to live under it.

The first of these laws is that all the people of the world shall be equal in the eyes of the law and shall have the same rights and privileges. The second law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to obey the laws of the world and to pay the taxes which are levied upon them. The third law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to defend the world and to fight against its enemies.
The fourth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to maintain peace and to live in harmony with one another. The fifth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to respect the rights of others and to refrain from doing anything which would harm them.
The sixth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to work for the good of the world and to do everything which is necessary to make the world a better place. The seventh law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to love one another and to be kind to each other. The eighth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be honest and to tell the truth.
The ninth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be brave and to stand up for their rights.
The tenth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be patient and to wait for their turn.
The eleventh law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be humble and to recognize their own faults.
The twelfth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be generous and to help those who are in need.
The thirteenth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be clean and to keep their homes and their streets clean.
The fourteenth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be healthy and to take care of their bodies.
The fifteenth law is that all the people of the world shall be bound to be happy and to enjoy life.