

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a related language. The text is written in a cursive style with many ligatures and is heavily crossed out with large, bold, diagonal strokes. The ink is dark, and the parchment shows signs of age and wear. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be written in a different hand or script than the main body of text. The overall appearance is that of a heavily revised or rejected manuscript page.
