

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink and is arranged in several lines across the page. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the age of the document. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a historical event or a collection of items. The handwriting is consistent throughout the page, suggesting it was written by a single scribe. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some wear at the edges.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date. The text is less legible than the main body of the document but appears to be a single line of writing. It may include a name or a specific date, but the cursive script makes it difficult to read accurately.
