

Handwritten text at the top of the page, including a signature and some illegible words.

Large block of handwritten text, possibly a list or a detailed account, with some lines crossed out.

Second block of handwritten text, continuing the narrative or list.

Third block of handwritten text, showing further details.

Final section of the document, featuring several signatures and names, including 'John' and 'James'.