

the present. The first of these is a copy of a letter from the author to the editor of the "Daily Telegraph," dated July 10, 1891, in which he discusses the proposed exhibition of his manuscripts at the British Museum.
The second is a copy of a letter from the author to the editor of the "Daily Telegraph," dated July 10, 1891, in which he discusses the proposed exhibition of his manuscripts at the British Museum.