

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily scribbled over. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a concluding statement. It includes the word "sepone" and "yoh 76" on the left side, and "varepe apntan eeden vt go getmy" and "di present vntpe q' oie tenor" in the center. There is a horizontal line drawn under the text.
