

On 20th of June 1700
I was sent by the King of France to the court of Louis XIV at Versailles as Ambassador of the King of Spain.
I was received at the court of France at the same time as the Spanish Ambassador and my suite also accompanied him to the ambassadorial audience.

On 21st June I was received at the court of France
as Ambassador of the King of Spain.
The King of France received me with great ceremony and cordiality and gave me a sword of state and a sword of command and a sword of honor. He also gave me a sword of state and a sword of command and a sword of honor.

On 22nd June I was received at the court of France
as Ambassador of the King of Spain.

On 23rd June I was received at the court of France
as Ambassador of the King of Spain.
