

Leopoldus regis et regum deorum & regnum
Reges regis regum
et reges regum regum
Reges regis regum

The generation of life, all over the globe, seems to have begun at a very remote period, and the number of species now living is enormous & exceeds even the number of species which have ever been known.
There are three main classes of animals, which may be considered as distinct, & which are called by naturalists the vertebrates, the invertebrates, and the plants.
