

And in the last me to be of 2 things we see regard to the first (concerning the first)

10
The first is that the motion of the planets is not uniform and that they move in elliptical orbits around the sun. The second is that the planets are not fixed in the sky but move relative to the stars.

