

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly Latin or Gothic, located at the top of the page. The text is written in dark ink and includes several lines of dense, cursive script. Some words are partially obscured by the ink bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text appears to be a fragment of a larger document, possibly a letter or a manuscript page.

Faint handwritten text or markings in the middle of the page, which are mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through.
