

The first part of the manuscript is a list of names and titles, possibly of a religious or official nature. The text is written in a cursive hand and is somewhat faded. It appears to be a list of individuals, perhaps members of a council or a group of officials, with their names and titles written in a formal style.

The second part of the manuscript contains a block of text that is also written in cursive. It appears to be a continuation of the list or a separate section of text. The handwriting is consistent with the first part, and the text is arranged in several lines, though it is difficult to read due to fading and the cursive style.
