

una de vobis... [The text is a dense, handwritten Latin manuscript, likely a legal or ecclesiastical document. It consists of approximately 35 lines of text, written in a cursive script characteristic of the late Middle Ages. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed parchment. The handwriting is somewhat cramped and difficult to decipher in many places due to the cursive style and the condition of the document. The text appears to be a formal declaration or a set of regulations, mentioning various terms and names, possibly related to a church or a specific jurisdiction. The overall appearance is that of a historical document of significant value.]
