

De quibus et de illis... [The main body of the document consists of dense, handwritten text in a Gothic script, likely a legal or administrative record. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines, filling most of the page. It begins with 'De quibus et de illis' and continues with various clauses and names, though the individual words are difficult to decipher due to the cursive and dense nature of the handwriting. The text concludes with a large, decorative flourish at the bottom right of the main block.]
