

Handwritten text in a dense, cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. It consists of approximately 35 lines of text, with some lines starting with capital letters. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text appears to be a formal record or a set of regulations, given the use of terms like 'señalada', 'señalado', 'señalados', and 'señalador'. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript or a page from an old legal code.
