

In supodi om... [The text is a dense, handwritten document in a historical script, likely a legal or administrative record. It contains numerous lines of text, many of which are crossed out or written over. The script is highly cursive and difficult to decipher. The document appears to be a collection of entries or a list of items, possibly related to land, property, or legal proceedings. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript or a set of legal records.]
