

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to land or property, given the use of terms like "terra" and "dominus". The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the age of the document. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be in a different script or dialect than others, possibly indicating a mix of languages or a specific regional dialect. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical record.
