

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

1. The first part of the book is devoted to a general description of the country and its inhabitants.
The author describes the various mountains, rivers, and lakes which are to be seen in the country.
He also mentions the different kinds of animals and plants which are found there.

2. The second part of the book is devoted to a description of the manners and customs of the inhabitants. The author describes the different kinds of houses which they live in, and the different kinds of food which they eat.

3. The third part of the book is devoted to a description of the different kinds of animals and plants which are found there. The author describes the different kinds of birds which are seen in the country, and the different kinds of trees and plants which are found there.
